THE OUTLOOK IS ALL RIGHT.

Democrats Confident of Their Candidate's Election.

BIG VICTORY COMING IN NOVEMBER.

The Democratic Campaign Enters the October Homestretch.

In the Best of Condition and with Every Assurance of a Triumph—States Claimed and Estimates of the Majorities.

Chicago, Oct. 5, 1896.—(Special)—The political outlook at the close of September is of the most satisfactory character to the democratic national managers, who are confident that the cause of Bryan and free silver has been receiving a marked impetus during the past ten days. From every quarter—especially from the central western states—comes the report that voters everywhere are flocking to the Bryan standard, while in the cities there is every indication that an overwhelming majority of the labor vote will be cast for the free silver president. In many of the central western states the democratic managers have completed their first poll, and the returns indicate that Bryan will carry every one of them by immense majorities. A poll of Kansas opened by the allied free silver forces shows that the Bryan club will have 50,000 majority in that state. A similar poll of Kentucky shows that Bryan's majority will not be less than 20,000, not counting the republicans who will vote for free silver. This vote is estimated will swell the Bryan majority to 30,000. The poll shows that there are less than 15,000 gold democ-

Alabama, Arkansas, California, Colorado, Florida, Georgia, Idaho, Kansas, Kentucky, Louisiana, Mississippi, Missouri, Montana, Nebraska, Nevada, New Carolina, North Dakota, Oregon, South Carolina, South Dakota, Tennessee, Texas, Utah, Virginia, Washington, Wyoming, West Virginia, Wisconsin, Maryland, Minnesota, Michigan, Iowa, Illinois, Indiana, Ohio—giving Mr. Bryan a total of 317 electoral votes.

NOTES FROM HEADQUARTERS.

Item of News Regarding the Progress of the National Campaign.

The demand for country newspapers, both daily and weekly, published in small cities and towns throughout the west for news direct from national democratic headquarters is something marvelous. Gov. Attegrel expresses entire confidence that Bryan and the entire democratic state ticket will carry Illinois by a rousing majority. The farmers throughout the state, he says, are almost a unit for silver. Outside 20 and 30 miles to hear a free silver orator, and the enthusiasm is intense.

Beside the laboring man and the labor organizations and the regular democratic vote in Chicago there are over 100 silver republican clubs embracing a total membership in Chicago of 10,000. These clubs, all under the "Silver Money Campaign Fund," to the Editor of the Herald: "We are sending you a check for $100,000. We have received your letter of August 11 in your edition of the 12th, and that you do not dissent from my proposition to start a Silver Money Campaign Fund." This was made up by subscriptions from Americans now in Europe. Therefore open to you open your columns to the people of America and subscribe and put me down for $100. I enclose a draft on Rothschild, at London, No. A. 12,000. I will pay you $100,000 and will send you a check on my bank at New York for the rest if you will kindly advise me what it will be."

A Lesson in "Good Politics."

To the Editor of the Herald: "The article appeared in yesterday's Paris Herald requires that a subscription be opened by the Herald in Paris for funds to assist the political campaign now going on in the United States against the silver party."

While agreeing with sentiments expressed in your article, we are liberal in our payment, and I do not think it would be "good politics" for Americans residing abroad to give so much money.

It would only serve as a "vandalism document," which the Bryan element would avail themselves of when a certain class of Americans would turn to their money instead of at home.

"Those who feel disposed can easily contribute to the Bryan campaign committee, and their money will be put where it will do the most good." J. A. H. "Homburg-v. Hams, August 14, 1896."

ANOTHER REPUBLICAN LIE.

Mr. Bryan Blamest This One in Great Shape.

Not content with the success of their efforts to get into power, the republican national committee is circulating among Italian articles which happen to have appeared in a paper Mr. Bryan once wrote silver editorials for, claiming that they express Mr. Bryan's sentiments.

It is simply another form of the responsibility game, and Mr. Bryan was responsible for getting it, but the silver editorials he contributed had no control over the paper. This correspondence explains itself.

"Washington, D. C., September 20, 1896.—Oscar Durante, Eng. Editor L'Italia, New York, to the Herald: "Dear Sir, Your attention has been called to the report in your journal of certain articles, credit to the Omaha World-Herald, in its issue of August 8 and 12, 1896, reflecting upon the general character of the Italian immigrants to the United States."

"I desire to state that the articles in question were not written by me nor was I ever responsible for them. My connection with the World-Herald was limited to its financial policy and did not extend to its general editorial sentiments of opinions. Very truly yours," W. J. BRYAN."

"Omaha, Neb., September 25, 1896.—National Democratic Committee, Chicago.

"Dear Sir: Answering your favor of September 21, relating to the charges in an Italian paper in Chicago, Mr. Bryan says: "I am sorry to learn that the Italian immigrants as a class, I say to you that Mr. Bryan did not write those articles, and probably never even read them, as he was at the time they were published abroad from Omaha upon a tour of the western states."

"Moreover, I desire to state that under the arrangement I have with Mr. Bryan, it was stipulated that he should be entitled to the paper only so far as it concerned the political organization of the Italian immigrants to the United States."

MONEY FROM FOREIGN PARTS.

Being Sent to This Country to Help Elect McKinley.

MARK HANNA IS OUT FOR THE CASH.

NOT A BIT PARTICULAR ABOUT WHERE IT COMES FROM.

He is receiving a sum of foreign funds, sent and indicated in the United States, but from Residents in Europe, Well, to Control the Election in November.

THE CLIMAX.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 14, 1896

Died.

Infant daughter of E. T. and Minnie Dunigan died Monday. Remains carried to Waddy, Shelby county, and buried yesterday.

Second Crop.

Dr. G. W. Evans has a pear tree with the second crop of pears, this year. Raymond Shearer, Sr., this county, also has a pear tree with the second growth.

Sale.

Administrator's sale of H. D. Shiflett, on Thursday, Oct. 8, well attended. Cattle $2.65c-$2.97c. Miles $18 pair. Corn 30 cents to $1.05 at the shock. Cows $20. Farming utensils and household sold low.

For Sale Keeping.

Work on the jail is progressing nicely. The prisoners charged with serious offenses are in the Richmond jail. Small-fry, such as plain drunks, are cooled out in the work-cells.

Colonel J. Stone Walker, trustee of Miss Hartman.

E. T. Fiske sold his store at Berea to J. C. Fiske & Co., of Cincinnati.

Cherry trees in bloom at R. B. Campbell's, near White's Station.

William Lindsay and John K. Feltus at the court house, Money afternoons.

Elton Biggerstaff is having an artesian well bored at his residence at Red House.

Red House continues to grow, and the people thereabouts want wheat-mill flour.

Then A. Jones, of Clark, is thinking of renting the Hamley stable in Richmond.

The four net drama, entitled "A Yankee Drummer," at the Opera House to-night.

Concert for benefit of Methodist church organ fund at Hotel Glyndon Friday night, October 23.

Judge John C. Chenault will speak at Hagan school-house Thursday night, and at Newby's Friday night.

Taylor Bros. have an exhibition at their store a patent dishwasher, it does the work in two minutes.

Drazier, merchant at Red House, has struck a strong vein of white-sulphur and salt water in his yard near the depot.

Paul Nolde's ear of corn, mentioned last week as having 32 pounds of grain, has a total of 1181 grains.

The Christian church at Brookston is to have an artesian well bored, having no cistern, well or spring near.

Half fare rates promised on all Rail Roads and Turnpike roads leading to Richmond on the day of the barbecue.

Col. Jonathan T. Estill has the entire community mystified—he wears a Bryan picture and a gold-dug bug-tom.

J. K. Warrall, Fulton, Mo., writes that he has not voted since he voted for Samuel J. Tilden, but will vote for Bryan.

Amos Willis is buying a residence built on his Silver Creek farm which will be occupied by McGehee Williams.

Grand rally at Millers creek, Fife county, with two bands of music and Kinnsong and Fitzpatrik as speakers.

A fatal disease called the "lumber foot" is killing chickens in this county, requiring only a few hours to "do up" the strongest "downiecker."

J. W. McKinley, Bonneborrough, has not been afflicted with the "willies" as his neighbors supposed—a boy at his house, Oct. 14th, 10 pounds.

George H. Myers has removed his dry goods to the stable corner and Second streets.

Harry Morgan, the English farmer near White's Station, has a field of wheat so far advanced that it is liable to joint before cold weather.

Richard Rodes and wife, colored, near Berea, left home last week, and when they returned found their house on fire and their child burned to death.

While the butcher shops are changing hands every few days, Ed Bowland has gone to handling Chicago meats at his grocery on Irving street.

The most delightful music you have heard since that ancient female "sang the song that reached her ear in heaven" will be heard at the Hotel Glyndon concert, Friday night, Oct. 23.

Complaint comes from Kirksville that the mail train has been behind time at Silver Creek every day, so far advanced that it is seriously interferes with the mail service at the McFerran Memorial church in Louisville.

One of the most prominent men of the city was found in front of Jos. Jones with a fit late yesterday. It was a very pleasant fit however and he told that Will Hain was the cause of it. In fact said Will Hain was in the habit of making fits, better call on him. Fits from 45 up to order. See?

Will Meet in Historic Ground.

Madison county teachers will meet at Bonneborrough on Saturday October 18, in open air.

Prof. J. H. Chandler, "Public Schools and Patriotism."

Mrs. Williamson, "Modeling in High School Course."

H. H. Brock, "Kentucky History in Public Schools."

French Tipton, "Historic Points about Bonneborrough."

Mary Bennett, "Women in Kentucky History."

Rev. Dr. Young, "The Teachers in relation to some Questions Agitating the Public Mind."

Mistake of Name.

Last Wednesday's CLIMAX contained the subjoined paragraph which had a name wrong. It is now reproduced correctly:

Mrs. Mary Fife was found dead in bed at the home of her son-in-law, Brutus White, near Richmond, on Thursday morning. She was awake at 3 o'clock and took some medicine, but at 7 was dead. She was 92 years old. Buried at the family burying ground. She was a consistent member of the Presbyterian church. The late Wm. Fife, this place, was a son.

Our clothing buyer seems to have hit the mark right in the center of the fall. The buyers are not saying "Why aren't they trimmed so and so?" or "why are they so and so?" But the expressions are "How pretty" and "how cheap!" The prices are graded to all pocketbooks; but the cheapest have the same janty cut as the higher priced goods. Covington & Mitchell.

Scattered the Family Along the Road.

Hon. John B. Thompson made seven speeches in this county last week. Mr. Thompson is considered one of the best lawyers in the State, but has never been a campaigner. No man, however, has improved more than Mr. Thompson since he has taken the stump. His speeches were received with enthusiasm and applause in every part of the county. The people appreciate his pluck and manhood in coming to their rescue when they were without a leader. Thompson will get the hearty support of every true Democrat in Madison county and every man who believes in the restoration of silver.

Married.

Nat Baldwin and Miss Leah Davis Nicholasville were married, Monday, last evening. Mr. Baldwin is a son of Lewis D. Baldwin, killed by Col. Tom Green, and has many relatives in this county.

A Yankee Drummer.

Was presented last night to a crowded house. To say it pleased, is out of the question, any one with blocks could hear, the audience throughout the entire performance. It is a four act drama full of business and Jones as "Sinner Hummer" takes the cake. Miss Walton as "Zane" Miss Horr as "Buggles" the mischievous boy, and Miss Brown as the "Widder" are excellent. Not a weak character in the entire cast. The specialties during play are excellent.—Beaver Falls (Pa.) Times.

Musical Concert.

On the night of October 23rd, the ladies of the Methodist church will take possession of the auditorium of Hotel Glyndon and give a concert for the benefit of the organ fund. Those who take part are: Prof. Mary Patti, Miss Flautt, Misses Maudie, Miss Keifer, Mrs. H. B. Hargrove, Jason Walker. Does this not assure a charming entertainment? A small fee of admission will be charged. No one at all fond of music can afford to remain away.

Amputated The Third Time.

Allen Taylor, of Cottontown, had twice had his legs amputated, and for a long time has walked on his knees. Last week he called Dr. Foster and had one cut off above the knee. When he awoke from the anesthetic, his wife asked him how he felt. "With my fingers as I have always done!" was his reply. He is doing well.

Died.

Mrs. Annie Harris died on Saturday, October 10, 1896, at her home at Blythe's schoolhouse, of flux and probably 30 years. Buried in Richmond cemetery on Sunday. Her maiden name was Horton. Her husband, Ans Harris, was in Capt. Stone's company in the Mexican war, and drew a pension on that account. He was also a member of Trubly's company, Chenault's regiment, and was killed at Greasy Creek, Tenn., 1863.

Mrs. Harris was the mother of Ans Harris, this place. She was a good woman.

Mrs. Stoner Dead.

Mrs. Alice Rogers Stoner, wife of Col. Robert G. Stoner, died at her family residence, "Oakland," near this city, Monday night, of acute inflammation of the stomach. Mrs. Stoner has been ill for three weeks and her case had been despaired of from the start. She was 46 years of age, and leaves, besides her husband, two children, Warren and Mrs. S. P. Clay. The funeral took place from the Christian church at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon, with services by Eliza J. W. Sweeney, L. H. Reynolds and Dr. E. H. Rutherford. The remains were then placed in the family lot in Paris cemetery.—Paris Reporter.

Old Books.

Harry Crawford delivered Wednesday to S. D. Goff 127 of the finest books in this country for many years. They averaged over 1,200 pounds. The price was private, but realized Mr. Crawford a handsome sum. Winchester Democrat.

Mr. Crawford lives in Madison and owns the Larimore river-bottom farm near Doylesville.

Broke Her Back.

On Sunday morning, while playing in front of the Harry Wilkes Park, at Moberly, this country, the fast trotter Infra, property of D. S. Wilcox, fell and broke her back. She has just returned from a trotting tour of Tennessee, and was entered in the 22d class at Lexington for a purse of $2,000. Mr. Wilcox had been offered a big price for her.

A Fine Lot of Cattle.

Harry Crawford delivered Wednesday to S. D. Goff 127 of the finest books in this country for many years. They averaged over 1,200 pounds. The price was private, but realized Mr. Crawford a handsome sum. Winchester Democrat.

Respect the Stomach.

Few people do have proper respect for the stomach. If a thing "tastes good" and is not so hot or so cold as to be painful to the mouth or throat, it is swallowed by too many people regardless of consequences.

Do not give the stomach food that will irritate it or retard it in the performance of its natural functions, or it will retaliate in a way that is definitely unpleasant. A headache, a "lump" or "heavy" feeling in the stomach and irritations of the skin are mostly symptoms of disordered digestion resulting from unwholesome food.

Allan baking powders are responsible for the larger part of this unwholesome food, for it is a fact well recognized by physicians that unwholesome food deranges the stomach.

The danger to health from this cause is so imminent that it behoves every one to adopt precautionary measures to keep alum baking powders which are now so numerous, from the kitchen stores. It will be found that those powders sold at a lower price than Royal are almost invariably made from alum, and therefore of inferior quality and dangerous to health.

The safer way is to look for the well-known red-and-yellow label of the Royal Baking Powder. That is certain to cover a powder free from alum. The Royal is made of cream tartar, a pure, wholesome fruit acid derived from grapes. It is renowned for adding anti-dyspeptic qualities to the food, as well as for making finer and better food.

Combination Celebration.

On last Wednesday, October 7th, the venerable Raymond Shearer was 89 years old. On the first day of September his wife was 72 years old, and that date will be the 60th anniversary of their marriage. As they combined the three events, we will call it a "fatal" month in the family, as a number of marriages have taken place in September from time to time.

Mr. Shearer was a son of Matthew Shearer, a pioneer from Virginia, who, among other expeditions, was with Anthony Wayne at Fallen Timbers, the struggle that caused a cessation of all hostilities on the part of the Indians. Mrs. Shearer was born in 1816, at Franklin, Tenn., was Miss Julia Gordon, of Clark county. The two are members of the long standing of the Christian church. They have five children, eighteen grand children, and four great-grand children, the children being James and Mrs. John Green, Winchester, Raymond, of Hunt, Clark county, Mrs. James W. Hugueley, of Red House, John W. of White Hall, all of whom were present, except James, Ten of the grand children were present.

Among the relatives and friends present were: Ab Shearer and wife, Sam Shearer, Jr., W. H. Hugueley and wife, John W. Shearer and wife, William Reeves and wife, Raymond Shearer, Jr., and wife, Mrs. Stephen Green, Miss Hattie Hugueley, Andrew Baxter, R. P. McCorriston and wife, French Tipton, Milton Kimball, Hiriam Reeves, Mrs. Maggie Green, Mrs. John E. Olds, Miss Lizzie Kimball and Mrs. Polly Green, the last named being in her 86th year, but physically and mentally strong.

The dinner constituted the entire celebration, was not only bountiful but of great variety and delightfully cooked—old ham, chicken, turkey, pork, beef, all the vegetables of the season, hot coffee, tea, various soups and pickles, sherbet, ice cream, white cake, black cake, fruit cake, sponge cake, pound cake and numerous dishes.

Mr. Shearer lives in Covington and our clothing buyer seems to have hit the mark right in the center of the fall. The buyers are not saying "Why aren't they trimmed so and so?" or "why are they so and so?" But the expressions are "How pretty" and "how cheap!" The prices are graded to all pocketbooks; but the cheapest have the same janty cut as the higher priced goods. Covington & Mitchell.

Common sense union undergraduates are now taking the place of the old style two piece goods. They are cheaper, more comfortable and perfect fitting, being knit to your measurements, and have no seams. A descriptive catalogue, samples of goods and self-measurement blanks sent on application. Prices for suits, $2.00 to $24.00 each. W. D. Ham, Factory Agent.

Colonel J. Stone Walker, of Richmond, Ky., the most popular banker and gold-standard man in Central Kentucky, was at the Gibson and stated to Colonel Jake Fetherston that he was an Englishman that he was going to vote for Bryan and the Democratic ticket. This means many votes to the Democrats in that district, where Colonel Walker has hundreds of friends.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

On Friday, a family, consisting of a man and his wife and eight children, were driving in a covered wagon, loaded with household goods and drawn by two horses, along thepike by Fort Estill. The horses scared at the breaking of the double-tree, and ran down the long steep hill. The man was thrown out and run over. The woman and six children jumped out and were considerably bruised. Two boys remained in the wagon and were not hurt. A fence post leaned out over the road at one point and the wagon coming in contact with it, lost its top and much of the furniture was scraped off and left. The horses were caught off and left. The horses were caught off and run away.

Dr. Bales relieved the suffering and W. C. Hundley collected the scattered cargo and brought same to the Richmond Hotel.

Remarkable Day's Work.

Was presented last night to a crowded house. To say it pleased, is out of the question, any one with blocks could hear, the audience throughout the entire performance. It is a four act drama full of business and Jones as "Sinner Hummer" takes the cake. Miss Walton as "Zane" Miss Horr as "Buggles" the mischievous boy, and Miss Brown as the "Widder" are excellent. Not a weak character in the entire cast. The specialties during play are excellent.—Beaver Falls (Pa.) Times.

No further particulars obtainable.

A Quiet Harrison.
MIDDLBROOK, Ky., Oct. 13.—Latest report from Harrison state that everything is quiet and no trouble is anticipated from Overton's friends. Sunday night is his last on earth unless his enemies stay put. His friends have despaired of his life, but should an uprising occur Sheriff Smith has sufficient command at hand to quell any disturbance.

Three Sons Died Suddenly.
PARIS, Ky., Oct. 12.—Three sons of Julia Thomas, a Negro woman of Bucksville, a suburb of this city, have died of diphtheria one on Thursday night, another on Saturday night, and the remaining son is still at death's door. On account of the prevalence of the deadly disease the schools have all been closed. Two deaths were reported Saturday.

O'erian Must Die.
FRANKFORT, Ky., Oct. 12.—Itford and the Huttons, the midwives, refused a respite of 30 days by Gov. Bradley. Overton had previously been refused a pardon and a commutation of his sentence. Gov. Bradley is absent on a speaking tour, but wired the secretary of state that the respite was refused.

War on the Tents.
LEXINGTON, Ky., Oct. 12.—Chief McElroy has declared war on the tents. He gave it out to them that they must get out of town before Monday, and that unless they did they would be arrested. The tents are scattered in several places, some of them were burnt, but most put out on the rock pile was not so pleasant as riding blind haggards.

Hopkinsville, Ky., Oct. 12.—While walking upon the tracks of the L. & N. railroad at Caskey, near this city, Sunday morning, David Morris, a colored boy 16 years old, was struck by a passing train and instantly killed. Both legs and his head were torn from his body, which was frightfully mangled.

HOPKINSVILLE, KY., Oct. 10.—While working in a sawmill Friday morning, A. C. Ballard was caught in one of the belts and fatally injured.

He Came to on McKinley.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Oct. 10.—Andy Welsh, the well-known pool seller here selling pools on the trot, offers to bet $10,000 to $1,000 that McKinley will be elected.

Male Gamble.

His Money Is Gone and Then Ended His Career With Morphine.

COVINGTON, Ky., Oct. 10.—P. Farrell, of Ellison Station, on the L. & N., committed suicide by taking morphine at the Central hotel, Pike and Washington streets, this city, some time after 1 p. m. Monday and Tuesday morning.

He engaged a room at the Central last Thursday and had been drinking heavily from that time up to Monday afternoon. The proprietor's suspicions were aroused by the fact that the man did not come down for supper or breakfast, and the door of his room remained closed.

The guest's body was found lying crosswise of the bed, with the feet hanging down to the floor. An empty morphine bottle and traces of the deadly drug on the lapel of the suicide's coat told the story.

Farrell had considerable money when he arrived in Covington, but from his remarks about the hotel it was surmised that he had lost heavily at gambling in Cincinnati. This is supposed to have been the cause of his despondency. The clothes he wore were nearly new.

Returned to the Penitentiary.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Oct. 7.—Detective Tom Marlar, of Louisville, returned to the penitentiary yesterday after having been temporarily released. He had been captured in St. Louis. Johnson escaped in 1888. He was sentenced for 10 years for robbing a streetcar driver and passengers in Louisville.

KENTUCKY FUTURITY

Two-Year-Olds Attraction at the Lexington Races Friday.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Oct. 10.—The Kentucky two-year-old trotting races Friday afternoon, and the attendance was large on this account. The weather was warm and the sport first-class. There were seven starters in the futurity, of which China Silk was an odds-on favorite. She had the entire of Marcus D. Day, the Marion competitor, and as she had never lost a heat the talent was certain she would win. She led in both heats all the way round and won in grand style, the second heat in 2:04, which is next to the best two-year-old trotter. Royal Victor was the first, and the second was the favorite, record 64 seconds, but the favorite took the next three and the race. He had to leave the track to win 2:07 1/2. This is the fastest Wilson stake ever placed.

MATT RAINIE'S

Fat Word Cost His Liberty and Another.

WINCHESTER, Ky., Oct. 8.—The case of the fat word cost his liberty and another.

THE 5th class trotting was easy for the favorite, Rose Turner, she winning in straight heats. The fifth race, the 2:20 class pacing, was unfinished owing to darkness after Stella and Eleanor had taken two heats each and Lucy II. one heat.

China Silk favorite for two years, trotting, $5,000; China Silk won, first, second, Stella after third. Best time, 2:16 1/2.

EVAN E. SETTLE
Named for Congress by the Ashland District Silverites.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Oct. 10.—The Ashland district silver democratic convention, which met here a week ago and adjourned, was unable to make any nomination for congress, re-convened Friday, and an exciting finish nominated Evan E. Settle, a brother, to represent the Southern district, to whom $1,000 that Shelby county will not go for either McKinley or Palmer, and also $1,000 that Kentucky casts her vote for Bryan in November.

A Killing in Estill County.
RICHMOND, Ky., Oct. 12.—At a party given Thursday night at the home of Pleas Hill, just over the Estill county line, Andy Christopher was shot by Jim Pedigo. Pedigo resisted and drew a knife, when the marshal shot him in the side. Pedigo fell in the street, and Bud Pedigo, a brother, ran up and Col. Jim Pedigo, taking effect in his right wrist. Will Be on Bryan.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Oct. 12.—President John A. Middleton, of the Farmers' and Traders' bank, of Shelbyville, Ky., having declared that Bryan will be routed in Shelby county, Dr. C. R. Morris, president of the Southern Farmers' club, offers to wager $1,000 that Shelby county will not go for either McKinley or Palmer, and also $1,000 that Kentucky casts her vote for Bryan in November.

A Killing in Estill County.
RICHMOND, Ky., Oct. 12.—At a party given Thursday night at the home of Pleas Hill, just over the Estill county line, Andy Christopher was shot by Jim Pedigo. Pedigo resisted and drew a knife, when the marshal shot him in the side. Pedigo fell in the street, and Bud Pedigo, a brother, ran up and Col. Jim Pedigo, taking effect in his right wrist. It is thought that Jim Pedigo's wound is fatal. A large crowd was in town, and great excitement prevailed.

Will Be on Bryan.
LOUISVILLE, Ky., Oct. 12.—The Ashland district silver democratic convention, which met here a week ago and adjourned, was unable to make any nomination for congress, re-convened Friday, and an exciting finish nominated Evan E. Settle, a brother, to represent the Southern district, to whom $1,000 that Shelby county will not go for either McKinley or Palmer, and also $1,000 that Kentucky casts her vote for Bryan in November.
